- The Service Days Program's main mission is to enhance various team building events through volunteering. We do this by providing easy, engaged opportunities for participants of conferences and various special events to create a lasting impact

Community Need:

Nonprofits play a critical role in addressing the city's largest social issues, including food security, healthcare, water management, and education. Unfortunately, many nonprofits struggle to access the necessary resources to build their networks to sustain and grow themselves. In New Orleans' case, "The typical health and human services nonprofit operates on a razor-thin margin. The median operating margin was only 0.4 percent in 2010. Just four of ten nonprofit service industries had positive (median) operating margins ranging from 0.2 to 5.6 percent. Forty-seven percent of organizations surveyed are struggling to balance their budgets, and 12 percent report being in serious risk of folding [i]." As a result, NetWork Volunteers actively recruits and manages volunteer groups for nonprofits and community organizations to help them gain greater access to human and financial support and resources. All of our volunteer groups are recruited and managed by our staff, relieving the burden on our community partners so that they in turn can focus on their missions. Additionally, all of our volunteer groups make a donation to the nonprofit they work with. To date, we have worked with over 40,000 volunteers with an economic impact of over $11 million.

All of the work that our AmeriCorps members will do will be to further connect and manage these resourceful volunteer groups with our community partners doing great work in the region. [i]
